December 2010

THE MASTER'S MESSAGE

Happy Holidays Brethren;

Wow, December already, how quickly 2010 has past. I hope that you have had a chance to visit with the Brethren especially the 10 members added to our roll this year. The Lodge and our new Masons need your impute, experiences and guidance. I remember a little over 11 years ago, as a new member, how helpful and encouraging our brothers were during my early journeys in Masonry. Plan on being that inspiration for our newest Masons.

T'is the season to enjoy good times with friends and family, and there's plenty of opportunities to spend some of those moments with your Masonic Family. First, there's the Masonic Family Unity Party on Sunday, December 5th, 4:00 PM at the Bektash Shrine Center in Concord. Next, our own Holiday Party on Sunday, December 12th starting with a 3:00 PM potluck luncheon, then a scheduled visit for the children with Santa (remember to bring a clearly marked wrapped gift/s for Santa to present to your child/children), a return of the popular and amusing Yankee Swap (join the fun, just bring a wrapped $10-15 gift to put under the tree and enjoy) followed by desserts. Lastly, after a one month absence, the return of the Lodge Potluck Breakfast on Saturday the 18th, what a great opportunity to sit back and relax before continuing with that last minute shopping, to enjoy a cup of coffee and breakfast with your family and friends. Now for the Brethren, we have the Wandering Wayfarers traveling to Laconia on Wednesday the 1st leaving the Lodge @ 5:30PM arriving for Supper at 6:30, an EA Degree on Thursday the 2nd, Master Classes on Tuesday the 7th in Concord, and our Monthly Stated Meeting opening in an EA Degree on the 16th, I encourage all our EAs and FCs to attend both the EA Degree and Stated Meeting, if you're mentoring or signed the petition of one of our newest give them a call and accompany them to both.

This is also the season when many are in need, remember to contribute what you can. We will again be collecting toys for the Boscawen Toy Drive, drop off your unwrapped gift at the Lodge on or before Sunday the 12th so we can get them to the Police Department for distribution. Also, again this year we'll be assisting the Capitol Area Holiday Food Basket Program, however, the Dec. 16 and 17th schedules have not been finalized by the Program Director at this writing. I will keep the brethren updated in my weekly email "Notes from the East" or contact me at 568-6786 for the update.

Fraternally,
David Hardy
Worshipful Master
