The Master's Message

Brethren,

Summer is upon us! The season of baseball games, cookouts, beach visits, and family vacations. Ironically, Horace Chase Lodge is dark during the high summer months. I say “ironically” because we are “dark” during the time of year with the most LIGHT. Daylight, that is. It is also ironic because, although we do not have Stated Meetings during the summer months, Masonic activity continues. But that is the genius of “going dark.” It is a time to be more relaxed and recharge. In this regard, going dark and summer are very much alike. During both, we can enjoy our lives differently. From both, we can return to our labors refreshed. This couldn't be more Masonic.

In Masonry, we commonly switch from labor to refreshment. Our ancient brethren revered the Sabbath day as a time to look upon the glorious works of the Great Artificer of the Universe with reverence and admiration. The very idea that we have eight hours every day for rest and refreshment is a strong symbol of the need for balance. So, as is so often the case, we Masons embrace ritual; not just in the form of words and symbols memorized for our assemblies. We embrace the ritual of rest and refreshment on a regular basis.

I'm sure work will still challenge you during this summer, even with some Masonic work; but forget not that this season is a gift from God and that we are charged to embrace it for our own wellbeing. Such is God's love for us! To that end, allow me to wish you all a restful, fun, and family-friendly summer.

Fraternally,

Craig Cabot Willis
